THIRD ARMY IS WAGING HARD TANK BATTLE

Hitler Throws In Large Portion of Armored Forces Believed Moved From Russian Front

ENEMY GETTING TOUGH

By WES GALLAGHER
Alsace-Lorraine, Sept. 21—(P)—Adolf Hitler has thrown in a large portion of his armored forces against the U. S. Third Army and for three days this armored force has been engaged in the greatest single tank battle since the landings in France.

The battle has seen the destruction of 105 Nazi tanks.

As this is being written on a box of bazooka shells, American artillery shells are whistling overhead at a number of Mark VI Tiger and Mark V Panther tanks dug in near Bures, 18 miles northeast of Nancy.

From there an irregular battle line is active in a wide arc north to points near Chateau-Salins.

But there is no regular line of tanks. Both forces range miles on both sides of these lines in sort-of lines.

It is the first time the Germans have committed their armor in this strength since the fighting at Caen in Normandy.

Battling the panzer veterans, some from the Russian front, are young American tankmen who have given more than they have taken but who have not come out unscathed.

Their losses in yesterday's fighting were among the highest the unit has suffered in a single since it came to France. But they nowhere approached the German losses.

"The Germans are getting tough; they stand and fight and don't give an inch even when we get behind them," said Capt. Steadman Seay, Albany, N. Y.

To all intents and purposes this is "enemy territory." The inhabitants speak German instead of French. All signs are in German. The Nazis sought for four years to Germanize the territory seized from France with immigrants and suppressed the French way of life.

The German civilians give some trouble by spy activity. Evidence has been received that the day after the crossing of the Moselle German troops in this area had detailed knowledge of this column's movements, something which never happened in France before.

NON-LEATHER SHOES WILL BE RATION FREE

Washington, Sept. 21—(P)—Non leather shoes made with rubber soles will become ration free next Monday, the Office of Price Administration announced today, while shoes containing leather remain on the rationed list, regardless of whether the soles are made of rubber.

Non-rationed shoes include those with uppers of canvas or other fabrics. Heretofore, these shoes could not have rubber soles. The casing of the rubber supply situation, OPA said, made the change possible.

FATALITY IN TITUSVILLE

Titusville, Sept. 21—(P)—Deputy Coroner C. M. Sonne reported the death yesterday of Clyde Alcorn, 59, of Titusville, killed almost instantly when he fell from a scaffold at the Perry Forge plant of the Struthers Wells Corporation.

Air-Borne Operations Are Reviewed By Sec. Stimson

Washington, Sept. 21—(P)—Secretary of War Stimson said today the first airborne army, by hopping "barriers of coastal forts, flooded lands and difficult canals," had brought the Allies to a point where Siegfried Line defenses may be found "less formidable."

"This airborne operation," he told a news conference, "again supported the hopes of all of us who have been interested in developing this means of offensive warfare. It achieved tactical surprise."

Victory of British Tank Troops and Allied Sky Soldiers Breaks Open Path to Relief of Pocket of Air-Borne Troops

MAY SEAL DOOM TO 100,000 NAZIS IN HOLLAND

BULLETIN
London, Sept. 21—(P)—The German radio asserted at 4:30 p. m. today that staff headquarters of an American air-borne division had been captured north of Eindhoven, in Holland. There was no official Allied comment immediately.

By JAMES M. LONG

London, Sept. 21—(P)—British tank troops and Allied sky soldiers have captured intact the mile and a half-long Nijmegen bridge in a raging 24-hour battle in Holland. They thus broke open a path to the relief of a pocket of air-borne troops locked today in a grim fight for life near Arnhem, eight miles to the north.

The Germans counter-attacked by land and bombing from the air in a desperate attempt to save their historic river defense line, but some of the western front's hottest fighting virtually set the seal of doom on perhaps 100,000 enemy troops caught in western Holland.

The whole fate of the Germans Ruhr valley and the safety of their entire northern flank was turning on the outcome of this first victory and the unfolding of a second battle about to take place for control of the crossings of the northern branch of the Dutch Rhine at Arnhem.

As Lt. Gen. Sir Miles C. Dempsey's armor raced across the Waal, largest branch of the Dutch Rhine, toward the north, units of Lt. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton's First Allied Airborne Army—believed to be Americans—apparently were hanging on grimly to positions astride the doorstep of the Ruhr.

The Germans declared the entire first British air-borne division was "largely wiped out" in the Arnhem area, but it was believed Americans were holding firmly to positions on both sides of the northern branch, and were possibly holding at least one crossing.

Battlefront advisers last night said the isolated airborne force was holding out against heavy attacks by reinforced German assault troops.

The British Second Army at Nijmegen must cross the main branch of the lower Rhine—the Waal Rhine—to reach the trapped troops. Capture of the bridge suggested the British had crossed or were crossing the stream.

The mile and one-half long concrete span, which a BBC broadcaster said had finally been seized, was the center of a swirling battle for 24 hours. The Germans counterattacked, even hurling their recently reluctant airborne force to desperate attempt to prevent a turning of their Rhine river flank.

There seemed little doubt the airborne troops were in the utmost jeopardy as supreme headquarters announced officially that they were "completely surrounded." Dispatches from correspondents with the trapped force said the Germans were being steadily reinforced—with men, anti-aircraft guns and possibly tanks.

Meanwhile, 70 miles to the south American First Army troops reached Gressenich, German village four miles east of Stolberg, in their drive toward Cologne and the greater Rhine. Elsewhere the Americans hung grimly to their breaches in the Siegfried Line.

A front dispatch said the channel port of Boulogne finally fell (Turn to Page Nine)

Yank Planes Bomb Nazi Supply Yards

London, Sept. 21—(P)—American planes bombed rail yards supplying the Siegfried Line at Mainz and Coblenz today, struck an oil plant on the Rhine at Ludwigs-hafen and "supported Allied air-craft in the continuing airborne invasion of Holland," a U. S. Eighth Air Force communiqué said.

Smoke still rolled up from the port of Calais, German-held strong-point opposite Dover which is marked to the same demolition treatment as Brest unless it surrenders quickly.

RAP heavy bombers late yesterday struck the French coastal town with up to 4,500 tons of bombs in a two and a half hour attack. Then rocket-firing Typhoons roared above the middle of the streets, blasting gun positions and concrete fortifications.

While these blows were in progress the French-based U. S. Ninth Air Force sent Marauders against German railways feeding the Siegfried Line. Then concentrated on the Trier freight yards, which were packed with enemy troops and supplies.

Washington, Sept. 21—(P)—Congress voted to recess today to Tuesday, Nov. 14—a week after the national elections.

Many members began leaving the capital, homeward-bound to put a whirlwind finish on their political campaigns, soon after the house concurred in the senate's adjournment resolution.

Washington, Sept. 21—(P)—Congress, hearing the call of the campaign, made ready to quit and go home today.

With major post war legislation out of the way, its members aimed last minute blasts of vote-getting oratory at the congressional record.

A recess resolution, freeing the lawmakers from legislative toils until the middle of November, awaited approval which leaders of both houses regarded merely as a formality.

Action was completed yesterday on the last of four major bills preparing for a sudden collapse of Germany when the house sent to President Roosevelt "states rights" legislation drawing the outlines for demobilization and reconversion.

Soviet Army Sweeps Across Estonia

British Stab to Nazi Threshold

A great victory was in the making in northern Holland as British troops raced 40 miles to Nijmegen on the Rhine line and threatened to break through to the open country leading to Berlin. Five miles past the city they joined with airborne troops driving down from Arnhem, while 80 miles to the south American forces encircled bitterly contested Aachen.

China's Future Role In War Against Japs Causes Concern

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, Sept. 21—(P)—China's future role in the war against Japan is a subject of increasing concern for military and diplomatic officials here.

The big question is whether the American drive across the central Pacific—even though it is months ahead of old schedules—can open a supply route to free China while it is still free and still organized for effective resistance to Japan.

For this reason Pacific strategists are paying closest attention to the speed of the Allied drives into Germany. A long-delayed victory in Europe, which would set back the day of full concentration against Japan, could gravely jeopardize China's continued existence as one of the "big four" United Nations.

This is of primary interest to the American government and its army-navy leaders because they want out of China:

1. Manpower resources to crush the Japanese armies in Asia—especially provided Russia does not enter the war.

2. A government capable of preventing Japanese war-mongers and agitators from going underground in China to spring up during the years of peace.

3. A nation that in the immediate post-war years will become a dominant power in East Asia.

At present, realization of these aims is threatened by the most complicated set of military and political considerations in any Allied war theatre in the world.

Flying Bombs Keep Britain's Lights Dimmed

London, Sept. 21—(P)—Flying bombs zoomed over London and the southern counties last night for the fourth successive night as the Germans continued sporadic attacks apparently aimed at keeping Britain's lights dimmed from coming on again.

Casualties included several children recently returned from the safety of country districts.

In one section at least two people were killed and four others were seriously injured when a row of homes was destroyed.

The government stood by its assertion that the "battle of London" was won, but not entirely over, and reiterated warnings that those evacuated at the height of the blitz should remain away a little longer.

Renewal of robot attacks after a two-week lull coincided with the lifting of blackout restrictions.

Inasmuch as most of the Germans' coastal launching sites have been cleared, it is generally believed the flying bombs are being launched from planes, although the government has warned that it still is possible the Germans may employ sites far inland.

PROTEST STRIKE IN DENMARK TERMINATES

Stockholm, Sept. 21—(P)—The general strike in Denmark, called as a protest to the German dissolution of the Danish Police Force, ended today on orders of the Danish Freedom Council.

The Free Danish Press service reported that the Nazis were conducting widespread searches for Danish policemen who escaped the initial roundup Monday, from which 1,700 men were deported to Germany.

JAPS PUT UP COSTLY FIGHT FOR PELELIU

Small Island of Angaur Falls To Americans But Resistance on Mainland Continues Bitter

DAVAO AREA POUNDED

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, Sept. 21—(P)—American invasion of the Palaus has cost the Japanese the small island of Angaur, most of Peleliu and 7,645 lives, but Adm. Chester W. Nimitz reported last night that "the enemy resistance is bitter" on rocky and rugged Peleliu.

The Nimitz communiqué spoke of "slow progress being made" in heavy fighting by the First Marine division on Peleliu, where the invasion of the vital Palau line of defenses started a week ago today. The Japanese had the advantage of rocky, timbered elevations.

The announcement of 7,045 Japanese killed on Peleliu and 600 on Angaur came after a communiqué told of the virtual conquest of the latter, where only mopping up action remained for the 81st army division.

The casualty estimated for Peleliu covered virtually three-fourths of the estimated 10,500 enemy on the island when the invasion was launched. Officers on Peleliu described its rocky, cave-pocked terrain as the worst yet encountered in the drive westward across the Pacific.

A small, unnamed island off the northeast corner of Peleliu was occupied by the Marines without any report of resistance.

Hitting again at the inner rim of Japanese defenses, Liberator bombers from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's command pounded installations in the Davao area, at the southern end of the Philippines, with 120 tons of bombs. Many explosions and fires were reported. There was no interception.

A new airfield was reported started on Angaur.

Blonde's Fate Now In Hands Of Mixed Jury

Mercer, Sept. 21—(P)—Blonde Janice Graham's fate was today placed in the hands of the jury trying her on charges of murdering three people at the Everett Wilson dairy farm last October 7.

At 11:50 a. m., Judge George H. Rowley gave the case to the seven men and five women who heard the testimony in a 10-day trial.

In a two hour and 45 minute charge behind closed doors, Judge Rowley told the jurors they were trying three cases and were required to return a separate verdict for each indictment.

He said Miss Graham could be found guilty either of murder in the first degree or second degree, guilty of manslaughter, or acquitted. The court added:

"If you find her guilty of murder in the first degree then you must also determine whether the penalty should be death or life imprisonment."

Judge Rowley reviewed the testimony of 18 prosecution witnesses and 21 defense witnesses, recalling the conflicting stories of what happened on the Wilson dairy farm the morning of October 7, when Mrs. Catherine Wilson, 78, Robert McKay, 70, and Mrs. Helen Wilson were found slain. Mrs. Helen Wilson had been strangled, the other two shot.

The intent to kill is the essence of first degree murder, the judge said, warning the jury to disregard testimony of Miss Graham's conduct. It is Everett Wilson, husband of Mrs. Wilson, unless it was found to be a motive.

Janice maintained her usual calm. She kept her eyes on the judge and jury. The defendant was wearing a powder blue jacket, white blouse and beret, black shoes and purse, with plaid skirt of blue and tan. Her elderly parents wept.

Only 59 persons were in the courtroom as the case reached its climax.

Politics Charged In Probe Demand

Washington, Sept. 21—(P)—Assailing Republican demands for a congressional investigation of the Pearl Harbor disaster as "pure political bunk," Chairman Sabath (D-Ill.) said today he has no intention of calling the rules committee together to consider resolutions demanding an inquiry.

Sabath disclosed his stand as Chairman May (D-Ky.) of the house military committee turned a deaf ear to a request for a joint military-naval committee investigation and as verbal repercussions from the Jap sneak attack continued to echo through the halls of congress.

The resolution was referred to the rules committee, and unless Sabath is overruled by his group, it will gather dust there until forgotten.

OBJECTOR SENTENCED

Erie, Sept. 21—(P)—Albert O. Mueller, of Jersey City, N. J., was convicted by a federal court jury yesterday on a charge of escaping from a work camp for conscientious objectors at Kane, Judge F. P. Schoonmaker, sentenced him to a five-year prison term.

New Legion Head

Edward N. Scheiberling, Albany, N. Y., elected national commander of the American Legion at the 26th annual convention just concluded at Chicago.

Victory Peace With Teeth Is Veterans' Plea

Chicago, Sept. 21—(P)—The American Legion began a new year of activity today with a program topped by a demand for army and navy training for the nation's young men and a determination to seek a post victory peace "with teeth in it."

The new national commander, Edward N. Scheiberling of Albany, N. Y., asserted at the close of the organization's convention late yesterday that the major legislative object would be the immediate enactment of a law providing peace-time universal military training.

Scheiberling, a husky attorney who won a captain's rank while serving overseas in 1918, was elected national commander by acclamation after a partial roll call at the suggestion of John Stelle of McLeanboro, Ill. Stelle and J. Fred Johnson of Florence, Ala., were the only other competitors who were placed in nomination.

Several resolutions were adopted shortly before the convention adjourned. One commended labor organizations which adhered to the no-strike pledge and denounced "that small percentage of unpatriotic citizens who have wilfully impeded war production in any wise."

WALLACE TO DELIVER FIRST SPEECH TONIGHT

New York, Sept. 21—(P)—Vice President Henry A. Wallace will make his first address of the election campaign tonight when he speaks in Madison Square Garden in behalf of President Roosevelt and his running mate, U. S. Senator Harry S. Truman.

The Independent Voters' Committee of the Arts and Sciences for Roosevelt, which is sponsoring the rally, said more than 19,000 tickets had been sold.

Novelist Sinclair Lewis, Actor Orson Welles and Sculptor Jo Davidson, chairman of the committee, are listed among the speakers.

RAIN HELPS LATE CROPS

Harrisburg, Sept. 21—(P)—Late vegetable crops showed considerable improvement in Pennsylvania following the soaking rains of last week the federal-state crop reporting service said today.

Beans, celery, spinach, tomatoes and a small amount of late cabbage are now coming into market in increased quantities.

Associated Press Bulletins

London, Sept. 21—(P)—A Berlin broadcast, quoting "a dispatch from Lisbon," asserted today that Prime Minister Churchill was en route to Moscow from his Quebec meeting with President Roosevelt.

London, Sept. 21—(P)—Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, premier of the Polish government in exile, has sent a message of thanks to President Roosevelt for the supplies flown by American bombers to partisans fighting the Nazis inside Warsaw.

New York, Sept. 21—(P)—The Finnish cabinet has been reshuffled with Uhro Castrén, president of the supreme administration court, becoming premier in succession to Hantti Hackzell, critically ill in Moscow after a stroke suffered during armistice negotiations, the Swedish radio said today.

London, Sept. 21—(P)—Citizens of neutral countries who claim to have seen the Nazi "V-2" secret weapon, believed to be a rocket bomb, say it looks "like a flying telegraph pole with a trail of flame," London newspapers declared today.

London, Sept. 21—(P)—The Berlin radio declared today that 40 hostages in the hands of Italian Fascists behind the German lines in northern Italy will be shot if former Rome Police Chief Pietro Caruso, now on trial for his life in Rome, is convicted and executed.

New York, Sept. 21—(P)—The Tokyo radio, heard by the National Broadcasting Company, said today that Japanese forces have captured Lungling and are reported 19 miles from Kweilin.

Washington, Sept. 21—(P)—Jefferson Caffery, American ambassador to Brazil, is now slated to receive President Roosevelt's nomination as the first U. S. ambassador to liberated France. Caffery, a career diplomat from Lafayette, La., returned this week from his post at Rio de Janeiro and is consulting with state department officials.

SUGAR REPORTED SCARCE

Folks who are doing a little canning of peaches, pears, etc., are reported to be meeting with some difficulty in getting sufficient sugar for the work. Inquiry brings to light the fact that transportation is the problem in securing sugar, but that most stores have small quantities. Butter continues to be scarce and in many stores in town only a half pound can be secured and several stores are completely out of the spread for bread.

ARRANGING TRANSFER

The Office of Defense Transportation has announced that it is completing arrangements to transfer part of its commercial vehicle gasoline rationing functions to the Office of Price Administration to become effective about October 15. The change is due to the fact that changing conditions, mostly of a temporary nature require more knowledge of local conditions than of over-all transportation problems.

ARE INVESTIGATING

State police are still investigating an entry and robbery committed at the Clarendon Barrel Works on Tuesday night, when some person or persons entered the garage and made away with a quantity of gasoline and a fog light from a truck. An attempt was made to take the other light but the robbers were apparently frightened from the scene before this was accomplished. Value of the articles taken was set at approximately $15.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crooks and Jean and Ronald of Mt. Jewett recently visited relatives here.

NEW RATION PERIOD

The State Liquor Control Board has announced that it will not increase the amount of whiskey a consumer may purchase at State Stores. But in the new ration period starting September 25 the time is cut so that only four weeks will elapse before the home supply can be replenished. The new period the eighth since rationing started will extend through October 21 with one-fifth of a gallon being sold to each individual upon presentation of ration book No. 3.

Prisoner Arrested Here Gets Additional Sentence at Erie

Edward Kubeja, 18, of Cleveland, O., serving a term in the Erie county jail after a sentence by the U. S. court at Erie, tried to escape Tuesday night. Kubeja was arrested in this county by state police after he had stolen an automobile in Cleveland and driven it this far. Kubeja was taken before the U. S. court for the offense and was sent to jail for a time.

Matt Hess, warden of the Erie county prison, told Judge R. M. Gibson that Kubeja and Maurice LaFarge, 18, of Evansville, Ind., attacked Turnkey J. F. Kissell, 72, in the jail. The boys pleaded that they were sick and when the cell door was open they assaulted the aged man. Kissell called for aid and, with Frank Vollmer, a guard, subdued the two youths. Kissell received head and body bruises. LaFarge hid in Kubeja's cell when the prisoners were locked in. LaFarge was in jail awaiting sentence on a charge of stealing an automobile.

Judge Gibson, after hearing the charge, sentenced Kubeja to serve in a federal institution until he has attained his majority.

Kubeja will be remembered by those who saw him while under arrest here as a sullen sort of youth whose appearance betrayed marked criminal tendencies.

Plans Are Laid For Booster Night Oct. 4

Holding their regular meeting last evening in the IOOF hall on Hickory street, members of "Warren Grange" made plans for "Booster Night" on October 4, when there will be initiation in the first and second degrees and each one is asked to bring an article to be auctioned for the overseas packages fund for service men.

Last night's session opened in full form and after routine business, several names were proposed for membership. Members were again reminded to send names and addresses of their service men and women to Mrs. J. N. Grady, Hazel street, so that overseas packages may be sent in time for the October 15 deadline. Named as refreshments committee for the Booster Night were Salina Zollinger and Mary Brown.

The literary program included a song by Donlin Baird. To conclude the evening, refreshments were served.

YM Worker In China Will Appear Here

Under the auspices of the Warren Y. M. C. A.'s World Service Committee, of which Harold S. Hampson is chairman, Roger D. Arnold, an outstanding leader among the educational and relief work forces of China, will spend three days in Warren, beginning Sunday, and in that time will be the speaker for three events.

On Sunday morning Mr. Arnold will occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church, and on the same day a parlor conference will be held in the afternoon for informal discussion of the situation in China and the Orient, in the parlors of the First Methodist church. Then on Monday, Mr. Arnold will address the Rotary Club at the regular noon-luncheon meeting. In these appearances, Mr. Arnold will speak on three different phases of problems and program in the Orient, particularly China.

Mr. Arnold is the North American Y. M. C. A. representative in China, as secretary for the southwestern provinces of Yunnan and Kweichow. Formerly inaccessible and backward, these provinces are now teeming with new developments. Kunning, Mr. Arnold's headquarters, is the port of entry into Free China and the crossroads of China's extensive new highway system. Situated at the terminus of the Burma Road, it is also a front-city with respect to the growing striking power of the United Nations Forces.

For twenty years Mr. Arnold has been associated with the educational and relief work in China. He received the Chia Ho Decoration in 1918 for plague prevention work in Shansi Province. He was the first non-Chinese member of the Yunnan Red Cross. More recently he has been a member of Kunning Christian Relief Committee, for work with refugees from Burma. Rotarians will be interested in learning that Mr. Arnold is a charter member and vice president of the Kunning Rotary Club.

KINZUA

Kinzua, Sept. 19—Friday evening about 70 members and friends gathered in the club room of a Community house for a farewell party, honoring Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Johnson, who leave on Tuesday for their new home in Sigel, Pa. A delicious dinner was served after which the honored guests were presented a purse of money by Miss Gertrude White in behalf of all present. After various speeches of appreciation and good wishes were extended to Rev. and Mrs. Johnson, the balance of the evening was spent in singing hymns, closing with "Bless It Be the Tide that Binds."

Mrs. Lillian Donaldson of Annapolis is spending a few days here visiting friends. Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Thee were weekend visitors at the E. E. Hanna home. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reed, Bernice and Gerald Reed of Beaver, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Perry Olson and daughter of Jamestown and Buddy Wall of Russell were Sunday guests at the P. J. Colosimo home. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Green are home after spending some time with relatives in Pittsburgh. Jane Thompson has gone to Buffalo where she expects to be employed in the near future. Harry Krenner, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Rebecca Eschenbach, was stricken with appendicitis and his condition became so serious that he was removed to the Warren General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Farrell have moved to Warren. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linneman are home after spending their vacation in Beaver Falls, Pa. Mrs. Frank Colosimo has received word of the death of her cousin Leal Culbertson of Franklin. It is understood that his death resulted from burns. Mr. Culbertson was stricken with a heart attack, while driving a truck and lost control of the vehicle which overturned and caught on fire. Miss Mary Lou Snyder entertained the members of her Sunday school class at her home last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Ellwood Ross entertained the members of the Rainbow Circle at her home last Thursday evening, and on Tuesday evening the Royal Blue Circle was entertained at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Zerbe. Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson was the honored guest, at a dinner party, (Turn to Page Six) copy of the executive committee's report on the subject of community recreation, so that the discussion of the matter can be expedited. If through an oversight any member did not receive a copy of this report he may secure one by calling at the Y. M. C. A., where a supply has been placed.

IN SERVICE

Local Turret Gunner Given Fine Citation

S/Sgt. Charles L. Gladd, son of Mrs. Hulda Gladd, 13 Monroe street, with the Eighth Air Force in England and only recently promoted to his present rating, has been awarded the Air Medal. His citation reads in part: "For meritorious achievement in accomplishing with distinction several aerial operational missions over enemy occupied continental Europe. Sgt. Gladd's actions reflect great credit upon himself and the armed forces of the United States."

Sgt. Gladd has flown ten missions over the continent, participating in attacks on Saarbrücken, Bremen, St. Lo, Munich, Ludwigshafen, Rouen, Pas de Calais, and military installations in support of the Allied forces now fighting in France. He is now serving as nose turret gunner on the B-24 Liberator "Batter Barn".

He has been in the army 19 months, having received his wings at Laredo, Texas, and completing his combat training at Casper, Wyo.

Local Boy Makes Missions To Berlin

Many friends of Lt. Floyd C. Peck will read with interest some excerpts from his latest letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Peck, 3 Malvina street. Writing from somewhere in Italy, he says: "Didn't I tell you that I was in the B-24's or Liberators? Our group is the Miberandos. You may read about them in some of the papers soon. The group is part of the 15th Air Force, so whenever you read about them, maybe I was there."

Here is something else that may interest you. While I was in England I was credited with five missions to Berlin. Boy, that place looks big from the air. I was right in there at the first when American heavy bombers hit the capital of the Reich.

"Another hot spot I have been to a few times is Friedrichshafen—the home of the Graf Zeppelin. I have a picture of one of the raids up there. Then there is Toulon in France. I've been there also to the capital of Hungary—Budapest. So, I've been getting around a bit. I have seen Rome from the air and hope to get there before I come home."

"I found out about four days before Elmer Springer got to France that he was on the boat. The 15th took part in the pre-invasion bombing. I missed the D-Day raid. The boys who were there said it was quite a show."

RECEIVES AWARD

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Roberts, of Sheffield, have received word that their son, Pvt. Stanley B. Roberts, has received the Combat Infantryman's Badge for actual participation in combat with the enemy while serving on the Fifth Army front with the 45th "Thunderbird" Division in Italy. He is at present in Southern France. Standards for the award are high. The decoration, recently authorized by the War Department, is awarded to the infantry soldier who has proved his fighting ability in combat. The handsome badge consists of a silver rifle set against a background of infantry blue, all enclosed in a wreath.

Mrs. Ellen Gregory, 818 Fourth avenue, has received word that her son, Pvt. LeRoy E. Gregory, has arrived safely in England.

Cpl. Franklin M. Winner has returned to his base at Camp Springs Field, Washington, D. C., after spending a ten-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Bertha Winner, Russell street, and his brother and family on Buchanan street.

Warren's WAC Grandmother Finds Army Life Interesting

By CORP. CLAUDE VAN ANDEL
Pfc. Anna Carlson, an Air Wac, stopped in our office today at the YWCA. She is home on her second 15 day furlough since enlistment in the WACS eleven months ago. Anna is the proud mother of three daughters and two granddaughters.

We were pleased to hear that the Carlson family is all-out for war. Pfc. Anna's oldest daughter, Mrs. Anna Aumer is a busy housewife, having two small daughters, which "grandma" is mighty proud of. Pfc. Anna's second daughter Helen, is also an Air Wac. She is stationed somewhere in England near London. The third daughter of the Carlson family, Mildred, is in the Army Cadet Nurses Corps and is taking her training at Saint Francis Hospital in Pittsburgh.

Pfc. Anna Carlson is stationed with the Army Air Corps at Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio. She is doing secret and confidential work for Brigadier General Orville R. Cook, who has complete charge in the office of procurement. This assignment was given to Pfc. Carlson upon the completion of her basic training which she took at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia. When we asked her how she liked her basic training, she stated: "It wasn't as hard as I had anticipated it to be. It's up to you individually as to what you make of your basic training and I enjoyed it from the day I began it."

When we asked how life at Wright Field was, she replied, "It's wonderful. We are all like one happy family. I enjoy my work and the personnel I am working with. When I am off duty, I never have a dull moment. There are always dances to attend, bowling alleys, movies and the PX, where we can always have a good time. We have our own ball teams, horse-back riding, we go on picnics together, we even publish a

CAP To Recruit Girls For WACS

Lt. Barbara B. Cook, district commander of the Civil Air Patrol announced today that arrangements have been completed to open their office on the 5th floor of the Warren National Bank every Friday evening from 7 to 9 p. m. for the purpose of WAC recruitment.

Lt. Cook has appointed Pvt. Helen Thompson of the CAP to head this new office and it will have its formal opening this Friday evening September 22.

HARVEST FESTIVAL AT TIDIOUTE SUNDAY

Tidioute, Sept. 19—The annual Harvest Festival will be held in the Presbyterian church in Tidioute next Sunday morning. As in the past years the church will be tastefully decorated with flowers, fruits and attractive and colorful vegetables, together with sheaves of grain.

This is a custom followed by many churches of later years and it has its origin in Europe where it is a special day in the church year.

Mr. L. R. Briggs who is a Dahilo graver of national repute, will be in charge of the decorations.

The service will also be appropriate to Christian Home Sunday which day it is in the church year. A picnic was held at the Schwab farm Wednesday afternoon, honoring Mr. and Mrs. George Grasser of Cleveland, Ohio.

Pfc. Carlson's next ambition is to get over there where the fighting is going on and see what is going on first hand. We are mighty proud of you Pfc. Anna Carlson. We know you have the kind of patriotic feeling that is needed to win this war.

WARREN BELOW ERIE

Warren county in its quest for waste paper only showed that 7.4 pounds per capita had been collected during the past month. This is a poor showing compared with Erie county which gathered 13.5 pounds per capita. Warren county is evidently not keeping up to the pace set in the earlier stages of the war. An appeal is being made that the optimism felt toward the end of the war be held in check and that waste paper a most essential war need be given more attention on the next drive.

CLEARING THE ATMOSPHERE

By J. M. Roberts, Jr., Associated Press War Analyst

Two recent developments in official frankness have blown like refreshing drafts through a United Nations atmosphere which rapidly was becoming stultified. They may, in the long run, prove as important as the fighting which overshadowed them.

We are beginning to get some light on the situation in China through a partial relaxation of what has been one of the world's tightest censorships, and on our relations with Russia.

Clyde Farnsworth of the Associated Press tells us from Kunning that all the fine stories we have heard of the Chinese fighting qualities have been meaningless because of inadequate military leaders. Brooks Atkinson of the New York Times, in reporting at least partial revival of free speech at Chungking, indirectly confirms what has been widely feared—that governmental practices in China have embodied many of the very things we are fighting against in Europe.

Almost simultaneously John Hightower in Washington tells how America and Britain have to tip-toe in dealings with Stalin, indicating that liaison is still very insecure and that much remains to be done to assure postwar cooperation; and how we are putting pressure on China for a reorganization of her poorly-handled war effort.

Both of these situations, hidden as well as they could be under diplomatic top hats, have been worrying observers for months. Not only because of what was inherent in them, but because of the explosion they might cause in public opinion the more they were suppressed.

We have just had in Italy an example of too much hush-hush. The Allies are in trouble with Italian public opinion because of a speech by Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia with which they originally had nothing to do. Tito demanded territory Italy has held since Versailles. The psychological warfare branch eliminated that passage from the version to be published in Italy. The Italians picked it up from broadcasts, and now everybody's in a stew.

The revelations about Russia and China—perhaps "clarifications" would be the better word, since the situations have been at least felt, if not generally known—should not be taken as adding to the gloom. The mere fact that the conditions are now out in the open could mean that people will be better informed on relations, and that such progress as is made will not be merely a false front erected by diplomats. It could mean that relationships themselves are better than they were—that there is a friendlier, more realistic meeting ground—else the more open discussion would not have been permitted.

Perhaps it only means that the whispering and tip-toeing no longer could be maintained. But the more hopeful view is that the international negotiators are beginning to realize that any lasting peace must be made not by diplomats, but by whole peoples, fully informed.

With the military situation in China at present admittedly most deplorable, causing increasing concern among Allied diplomats, it will be with considerable interest that many will read of the appearance over the weekend of Roger D. Arnold, serving the southwestern provinces of Yunnan and Kweichow, who comes here to give three talks regarding the work of the Y. M. C. A. in that stricken empire. Mr. Arnold has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in China since 1916 and is conversant with all phases of life in the Far East. His message should be timely and most informative.

The battle for Germany, which for a time appeared likely to take place at the Rhine, has actually begun in the Siegfried line and watery Holland and it appears it may be decided there. Reports from Arnheim are grim. Today's news, however, that all airborne units south of Arnheim have linked up with the British is a strong indication that the battle to turn the northern end of the line is still going, "according to plan." Incidentally the Germans are fighting to save themselves in the very territory where they began the total war in May, 1940.

The Sacrificial Lamb

New Baby Is a Big Problem to Policemen

One of Warren's newest citizens arrived in town this morning at 7:20 and it kept the police on duty at that hour as busy as bees. The physician who had been attending the case had been called out of the city. However, time and new babies wait for no man and the baby signalled its approach bright and early this morning. In an effort to get a physician a call was made to the police station.

The cruiser car with an officer was sent to the home and he sent word back to "hurry up that doctor." The telephone was pressed into use and call after call was made in an effort to secure a doctor. One physician had a hemorrhage case under treatment, another suggested that he would come over if the woman was taken to the hospital, and others just simply could not be roused from bed.

Bulletins from the scene were kept flowing to police headquarters and finally it was announced that the "baby is here—get a nurse." Then began an effort to secure a nurse and finally, after much telephoning and sweating, the deskman sent a nurse to the scene. Then he wiped his face with his blue bandana and breathed a sigh of relief.

The invention of agriculture was the foundation-stone of middle American civilization, among the Aztecs, Incas and Mayan Indians.

HOW TO RUIN DRESSES AND LOSE FRIENDS

IT'S tragic how some girls lose their friends and ruin their dresses because of perspiration odor and stains. And there's no excuse for it. It's easy to save dresses, it's easy to save friends.

Use Arrid, the new cream deodorant that helps keep your armpits dry and removes the odor from perspiration. Arrid is safe and dependable for these five reasons:

1. Arrid does not irritate skin. Does not rot dresses or men's shirts.

2. Prevents under-arm odor. Helps stop perspiration safely.

3. A pure, white, antiseptic, stainless vanishing cream.

4. No waiting to dry. Can be used right after shaving.

5. Awarded Approval Seal of American Institute of Laundering—harmless to fabric. Use Arrid regularly.

Arrid is the largest selling deodorant. Sold at all stores selling toilet goods—39c and 59c a jar. (Plus Tax)

The Warren Savings Bank has just announced that it will erect the finest office building in this section and home for the bank. It will be ten stories in height and work will start soon.

Warren county schools with the exception of those in Columbus Borough have opened for the year. The total enrollment for the county is now said to be about 5600.

The lease formerly owned by Robert Thilo in Page Hollow has been purchased by Charles Moore and Samuel Wolfe. They expect to drill a number of wells in the near future.

The Martindale Company which is one of the fastest expanding companies in the city has purchased the building at Beech street and Fourth avenue and will occupy it soon.

Men of the Presbyterian church congregation will enjoy a picnic tomorrow evening at the Duke Lease. The picnicers will be transported in automobiles to the scene of the festivities.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Soldiers vs. Civilians in Tomorrow's World

You hear some talk about how—when the war is over—there's going to be bad feeling between soldiers and civilians; how the country will be divided into those who fought in uniform and those who stayed at home.

Well, maybe you saw that letter from a soldier overseas, in one of our big magazines. It said that men in uniform aren't thinking any such thoughts—any more than folks at home are.

The most important thing is, that we're all engaged in one titanic struggle to preserve our freedom and our rights—not just as soldiers or civilians—but as Americans!

From where I sit, that attitude is going to win the war—and win the Peace too. If we can respect the rights of others—whether it's their right to enjoy a glass of beer, or to vote the way they please—we've got a mighty sound foundation for our peacetime world.

Youngsville PTA Opens Its Year's Season

Youngsville, Sept. 20.—The first meeting of the Youngsville Parent-Teacher's for the current school year was held Tuesday evening, Sept. 19th in the high school auditorium and the school cafeteria.

The evening program opened with a series of selections by the Youngsville high school band under the direction of Harvey Horn. The numbers were received with applause. Mrs. Wade W. Ransom vice president presided at the business session of the Parent Teacher's Association in the absence of the president.

The organization of the officers Parent Teacher's Association was completed by the election of a secretary, Miss Mildred Westover was chosen for this office.

Supt. of Schools Stillings then introduced the new faculty members which were as follows: Miss Minnie Hanson, first grade; Miss Mildred Westover, second grade; Mrs. Doris Taylor, 7th grade of the Junior high school. Others of the high school group were Robert Jewell, athletic coach; Mrs. Harvey Horn, Mrs. Grace Lewis and Miss Dorothy Hendrickson.

Following the sessions in the school auditorium guests were invited to the school cafeteria for a social time and refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee.

DISCUSS PERMANENT HOME

The meeting called for Tuesday evening to discuss and hear reports in regard to a permanent home for the Legion and Auxiliary was held in the Legion room. After much discussion, it was decided to take the first step considering admissible in plans for the ownership of a home and that was to incorporate the American Legion.

No further action was taken at this meeting.

HONORING PASTORS

A reception is to be held in the form of a Fellowship dinner at 6 p. m. Friday evening, Sept. 22nd in the United Brethren church in honor of the new pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Strong, who this week are moving to Youngsville from Frewsburg. Both the United Brethren parsonage and the United Brethren church have been undergoing some decided improvements recently.

Plans are also underway for a Fellowship dinner Tuesday evening, Sept. 26 in the Methodist church at 6 p. m. as a welcome to Rev. and Mrs. Dwight Jack who are returning for a 5th year of service in the local church. Guests are requested to bring turkey and table service. A cordial invitation is extended to all members and friends.

Those who come will be pleased to see all the improvements made in the Methodist church, particularly in the basement by a group known as "Methodist Men." Curtains are also being made for several of the rooms by the ladies of the church.

The Free Methodist church will welcome Sunday as their new pastor, Rev. Mr. Burk who is this week moving into Youngsville and will be present it is expected for the services on Sunday.

Girl Scout Leaders Coming Here For Area Conference

Like many other members of the Girl Scout national staff, Mrs. Edward Foster, of Annapolis, Md., who will be in Warren on September 26-27 to lead discussion groups of the area conference, began her career in Scouting as a volunteer troop leader.

After five years of affiliation with the organization on a volunteer basis, she joined the professional staff and has been recently appointed field advisor in Region Three, where she will assist with the organization of Girl Scout troops and the training of volunteer workers.

Before her marriage to Commander Edgar Foster, USN, retired, Mrs. Foster was a laboratory technician with the United States

Elsie Allan Thompson

Public Health Service. She attended Vassar College and George Washington University.

Mrs. Elsie Allan Thompson, who will be in charge of singing at the conference and will conduct a "Song Workshop" on Tuesday evening for Girl Scout and Brownie leaders, left the field of formal education to become a Girl Scout executive.

After finishing school at North Dakota State Teachers College and the University of Wisconsin, Mrs. Thompson was a teacher in Hurley, Wis., and Hardin, Mont. Her first professional Girl Scout job was as executive secretary in Tacoma, Wash.

Mrs. Thompson has traveled widely in the Orient and in Mexico. She was born in the Philippine Islands. The variety of her experience has given her a rich background to draw upon for her Girl Scout work.

All meetings of the two-day conference will be held at the Woman's Club. Group luncheons on Tuesday will be served by the American Legion Auxiliary and the YFW Auxiliary at their respective clubrooms and by Geracimos Restaurant. Dinner Tuesday will be at the Woman's Club and luncheon Wednesday noon will be at the YWCA.

Reservations for all meals must be in the hands of the committee no later than this evening and should be made by calling Girl Scout headquarters, 1895.

Drive Is Under Way on Traffic Violations

Chief of Police George Haehn is spurring his patrolmen forward in an effort to round up the traffic law violators in the city. During the past few months motorists have grown lax in observance of the traffic laws. During the early morning hours red lights are crashed by dozens of drivers coming from or going to work and they speed over the streets with much disregard for any rules or regulations. Parking is carelessly done and double parking has grown to be a nuisance.

Chief Haehn has issued orders that all violators be picked up and haled into police court. Red tickets are being distributed by the officers by the dozen. Police are watching the traffic lights during most of the day and night, and woe be to any careless driver who crashes the lights. "Stop" signs are also being disregarded by some motor car drivers and the police are checking them carefully.

"There are too many small accidents due to carelessness," said Chief Haehn today. "People seem to have little regard for their own safety or other drivers' cars, and fenders are smashed with regularity. In this day, when every effort is being made to conserve automobiles, as they cannot be replaced, it is felt that more care should be given to the use of the highways of the city. To that end we are making a drive to arrest all violators and teach them a lesson."

FAREWELL GIVEN FOR KINZUA PASTOR

The WSCS of the Methodist church in Kinzua sponsored a farewell party held in the community house to honor the Rev. and Mrs. Harry Johnson, who are soon to leave for their new home in Sigel. There were about 80 in attendance, including members of St. Luke's church and friends from the entire community, showing the high esteem in which the Johnsons were held by all who knew them.

After all had partaken of a bountiful twelve dinner, Mrs. Charles Linneman presented Miss Gertrude White, who expressed the regrets of the congregation and friends in having the couple moved from the community. They were presented with a generous gift in appreciation of their faithfulness and untiring services. The Johnsons will have the best wishes of the entire community in their new work.

ALLEN CLASS ENJOYS REUNION

A large number of members of the Allen Class met in the First Methodist church parlors Tuesday evening to enjoy a reunion with a few former members and friends and to hear messages read from more than a dozen members of previous years who are now living out of town and were unable to be present.

Inspirational devotions were conducted by Miss Marie Gutzler on the theme of the symbolism of candlelight. The incoming president, Mrs. N. D. Paterson, spoke of the purposes of the class and of the planned activities for the year. A brief business session was followed by a fun program consisting of a series of group games, stunts and quizzes.

Chairman of the evening was Mrs. J. R. Hanson. Mrs. Paterson and Mrs. H. L. Blair presided at beautifully decorated tables and dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. F. A. Wood and her social committee.

PLAYERS EXECUTIVES HEAR ABOUT PLANS

At this meeting of the Players' Club executive committee reports are presented by Astrid Cowden on progress of the membership enrollment and by Nelson A. Johnson, publicity chairman. The former's report showed more favorable response this season than ever before and it is anticipated that there will be a record membership attendance for the season's productions.

Betty Rice, program chairman for the year, outlined tentative plans for the season's four presentations. These begin with "Claudia" on October 5-6 and continue in December, February and May.

Vera D. Somerson Becomes the Bride Of William Sedon

In Salem Evangelical church on Wednesday, Rev. S. R. Schieb united in marriage Vera D. Somerson and William P. Sedon, both of this city. The double ring service was read before an altar banked with autumn foliage and two tiers of candles, highlighted by baskets of gladioli and asters.

The bride wore a street length dress of aqua, with matching hat and brown accessories, and had a corsage of dark red rosebuds. Her attendant, Mrs. Walter Campbell, wore dark brown accessories and red rosebud corsage with a suit of gold color. Richard Sedon was the best man.

Miss Ruth Ackert played the traditional wedding marches, also "At Dawning" by Cadman and "Pale Hands I Love Thee" by Flinden, and accompaniment for the vocal selection, "Because" by Guy D'Hardelet, sung by Miss Lillian Ristau.

Following the ceremony a reception for 88 relatives and friends was held at the YWCA activities building. Guests included the following from out of town: Mrs. William Stuve, Mrs. Elwood Erickson, Erie; Miss Helen Sedon, Old City; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sedon, Starbuck.

Mrs. Sedon is a graduate of Warren High School and is employed as a receptionist at the Sylvania Company. Mr. Sedon is employed as a welder at Struthers-Wells.

After a wedding trip to Canada, they will reside at 223 Prospect street.

Personal Paragraphs

Monty Hildum, two and one-half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Hildum, Warren RD 2, was brought to Warren General Hospital Wednesday and kept under observation for a time after it was learned he had taken some tablets from a medicine bottle in the home. He was discharged later in the day with no apparent ill effects.

Charles H. Meyers, of Grove City spent the day here with his mother and sisters and Mrs. Mina Meyers accompanied him home for a visit.

Mrs. Earl Felder, who has been in Warren General Hospital with a compound fracture of her left leg following an automobile accident, has been discharged and removed to her home, 1916 Pennsylvania avenue, east.

Mr. and Mrs. Arner Haslet and sons, Robert and Jimmy, of Warren were down to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Haslet, on Sunday and while attending a family picnic at the home of Mrs. Alice Kelly, Jimmy, 11 months old, suffered a fall which fractured his left leg above the knee. He was being carried in the arms of a young girl who tripped and fell on rough ground. X-rays taken at the Warren General Hospital showed it to be a "green stick" fracture and the leg was placed in a cast, which the little fellow will be obliged to wear about five weeks—Tionesta Republican.

Couple Wed in No. Warren Church Today Leave Soon as Missionaries

United in marriage at 2:30 p. m. today in the North Warren Presbyterian church, Elizabeth G. Muller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Carpenter, of North Warren, and Rev. H. Arthur Muller, of Haddonfield, N. J., son of Rev. H. A. Muller and Dr. Laura McComb Muller, of Tabriz, Iran (Persia), will sail from Philadelphia in October or November to take up their duties as missionaries at Teheran, Iran, where they have been assigned to the American Mission by the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions.

The rites were performed by the Rev. J. H. Cruickshank, pastor, and Dr. George Fischer, uncle of Rev. Muller, with the principals facing the congregation and summer flowers providing a background. Mrs. Watson Jamieson, organist, played "O Promise Me", "Venetian Love Song", "Barcarolle", "Meditation from 'Thais'", "Trauerlied", "At Dawning" and "Liebestraum". Mrs. Samuel Wolgemuth, college friend of the bride, sang "Because", "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "O Perfect Love" by Barnby.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by her only sister, Mrs. Arland Briggs, of Pleasantville, who wore the pink flowered organza gown which Miss Carpenter had worn four years ago for Mrs. Briggs' wedding. In her hair Mrs. Briggs wore a pink ribbon bow, matching bows on her sleeves and ruffled skirt. Her colonial bouquet was of pink roses and blue asters. Mrs. Briggs' period bridal gown of imported organdy was worn by the bride, with a fingertip veil of tulle and a single strand of pearls belonging to her mother. Her colonial bouquet was of red rosebuds, forget-me-nots and baby's breath. As flower girl, Ruth Ann Wolgemuth, who wore a blue flowered organza gown trimmed with black velvet ribbon, in style like that of the bride and matron of honor.

Lt. Ernest H. Muller, with the Army Air Corps at Pampa, Texas, was his brother's best man and ushers were Dr. Yahya Armajani, Chicago; Earl H. Johnson, Erie; Arland Briggs, Pleasantville, and Myron Olson, of Warren.

A reception for 150 guests followed at three o'clock in the North Warren community house, where bouquets of garden flowers were used as a background for the bride's table, attractive in appointments of yellow and white and centered with a three-tiered cake. Mrs. Carpenter wore black crepe with sequin trim and a red rose corsage and the bridegroom's aunt, Miss Ruth McComb, wore black with aqua and a pink rose corsage.

Guests included the following from out of town: Dr. and Mrs. George Fischer, Ocean City, N. J.; Ruth and Annette McComb, Haddonfield, N. J.; Lt. Ernest H. Muller, Texas; Dr. and Mrs. Yahya Armajani and daughter, Nurene, Ruth Harter, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert McComb and daughter, Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Johnson, Doris Johnson and Mrs. F. A. Mrs. Muller was graduated from Millersburg High School in Erie, Chicago Evangelistic Institute and received her bachelor of arts degree at Taylor University in 1941; also degree of graduate nurse from Indiana Training School for Nurses at Indianapolis in 1944.

Rev. Muller, graduate of Haddonfield Memorial High School in Haddonfield, N. J., received his bachelor of arts degree at Wooster College in 1938 and degree of master of theology from Princeton Theological Seminary in 1944.

The bride-elect was honored with a linen shower given by Mrs. George Fischer, of Ocean City, N. J., and a personal shower for which Mrs. Charles Hamilton, Mrs. Lohr Hamilton and Mrs. Raymond Lederer, of North Warren, were hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Birchard, 111 Conewago avenue, make announcement today of the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth G. to Lt. Robert F. Parkhurst, of South Camp Hood, Texas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin G. Parkhurst, 507 Liberty street, Erie, and formerly of this city.

The ceremony was performed at 3:30 p. m. September 15 in the First Presbyterian church by Dr. Harold C. Warren. Wedding selections included "Because" and "I Love You Truly", together with the traditional marches.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by Mrs. Robert E. Wolf. Her wool suit of gold color was complemented with brown accessories and corsage of orchids and bougainvillea. Mrs. Wolf wore black accessories and a yellow rose corsage with a black and white checked suit. Mrs. Birchard wore black, with red rose corsage, and Mrs. Parkhurst had yellow mums with a brown and gold ensemble. Mr. Parkhurst was his son's best man.

A reception for 50 guests followed in the church parlors, where the bride's table was appointed in pink, green and white and centered with a three-tiered cake topped with a miniature soldier and bride. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mead, Mrs. Mertie Kay Roy MacDowell, Miss Jane MacDowell, Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, Mrs. Fernel Johnson, Youngsville; Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Reese, Mrs. M. Ray Green, Corry; Mrs. Melissa Hurlbut, Mercer.

Later the couple left for Pittsburgh and, after today will be at home at South Camp Hood, Texas. Both are graduates of the local high school, the bride in 1941 and Lt. Parkhurst one year earlier. She has been employed by the Pennsylvania Electric Company; Lt. Parkhurst studied chemical engineering at University of Pittsburgh, graduating in 1943, and is now a second lieutenant in the army reserves.

Fellow-employees honored the bride-elect with a dinner at the Pittsfield Inn; a luncheon was given by Mrs. Robert L. Johnson, 19 Hertz street; and a shower was given by Miss Maxine Matthews, Miss Barbara Webster and Miss June Russell at the Matthews home on Water street.

HONORED AT FAREWELL

Fifteen girls of the molding and stemming department of Sylvania Plant No. 2 held a fish fry Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Marian Palumbo at Barnes. The affair was in the nature of a farewell for the Palumbo family, leaving soon for Buffalo, N. Y., where Mr. Palumbo is employed. Fun and music provided a pleasant evening for all.

Community PTA Council Head Names Committee Chairmen; Plans Are Made

Mrs. Walter Mather, president of the Community PTA Council, has announced appointment of the following committee heads for the coming season, making them known at the first fall meeting:

Program, Mrs. Walter Pearson of Johnson unit; magazine, Mrs. Robert Schorman of the same unit; legislation, Mrs. F. H. Herick of Seneca; Clare Tree Major plays, Mrs. Virgil Kintner of Lacy; parliamentary, Mrs. Don McComas of Lacy; Book Week, Mrs. Melvin Ahlgren of Seneca; war activities, Mrs. William Rohrer of Lacy; historian, Mrs. J. A. Scallies of McClintock; publicity, Mrs. Olive Huff. Also named to the legislation committee were Mrs. W. E. Cooney of Johnson and Mrs. J. W. Smith of McClintock.

Clare Tree Major plays for this season were announced as follows: Peter Pan on November 6 and The Prince of the Secret on January 8, both in the high school auditorium.

A large part of the program was devoted to reports on the recreation program sponsored by the council in the summer months, these being presented by Mrs. Mather; Mrs. Huff, who is chairman of the committee on community recreation; Robert Wilder, chairman of the party committee, and Mrs. J. G. Smallman, council treasurer.

Mr. Wilder expressed appreciation of the young people for the pioneering spirit of the council and stated best evidence of this gratitude was seen in attendance response for the parties. He stated there were an attendance of nearly 5,000 at the four community events at Beatty School, outlined the plan used in the program and presented some of the problems encountered.

Mrs. Huff called attention to the fact that both adults and young people had requested these community activities, two of which were planned to make use of Beatty field, the school lawn, the gym and the outside court for accommodation of a crowd of more than 2,000. Problems of handling the demands with limited funds and volunteer supervision for a long-range program were outlined.

Mrs. Smallman's report indicated just enough money in the recreation fund to handle the September 16 party.

It was shown that the council has made no charge for admission to any of these parties, the only fee being for refreshments, and that all services of aides have been donated. The council voted to attempt to work out some plan for financing other such community events until a complete community project has been set up.

Following the business session, the Johnson unit was hostess for tea.

The PAC, sponsored by the First Presbyterian church, announces today that it will hold its first anniversary party in the form of a "showboat" dance in the Y. W. C. A. at 8:30 Saturday, September 30th.

Decorations, in charge of Leland Daye and Marcia Johnson, as well as the program, under the supervision of Allen Woodruff, will carry out this theme. Music will be furnished by Mac MacCarthy and his orchestra. Joanne Weidell and Tom Hampson will be in charge of refreshments which will be served in the "Dining Salon". Virginia Johnson and John Robertson are general chairmen in charge of the party, with Don White in charge of publicity.

The PAC was organized a year ago to provide social, educational and spiritual training and experience for boys and girls of the community. During the past year, at least one activity was held each week and it is planned to follow this same policy during the coming year.

The schedule plans for a dance at the Y. W. C. A. the last Saturday of each month and a party two weeks earlier each month at the Y. M. C. A. Special activities have been planned for the intermediate weeks.

The directors of PAC activities the past year were Mr. and Mrs. E. Sires and Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Davis who will be assisted this year by Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Plummer.

Further details and complete committee membership will appear in this paper within a few days.

North Warren Couple Observe 63d Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Songer, of North Warren, celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary last Sunday with an open house held at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Haggerty, at Crown.

The couple, he will be 84 years old on March 21 and she the same age on December 31, are in the best of health and thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

The more than 100 relatives who joined in celebrating the occasion included 10 of their 12 children, 20 of their 55 grandchildren and 5 of 31 great-grandchildren. Their attendants 62 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zitzelberger, of Brookville, were among those invited but Mrs. Zitzelberger, older sister of Mrs. Songer and 87 years of age, suffered a back injury on Friday and were unable to be present. Mr. Zitzelberger, best man at the wedding, is 96 years of age.

Tables were spread on the lawn for a delicious chicken dinner which centered about a bride's cake baked by Edna Songer, of Sigel. Music was furnished by Herman Peterson, Robert Songer, Sr., and Robert Songer, Jr.

A generous sum of money was presented the couple and all were invited to return in 1945 for their 63rd anniversary.

BEHIND THE LINES

The Sylvania Bowling League will meet Tuesday evening at the Penn Alleys to shape plans for two leagues. There will be a girls league with ten teams and a men's league with six teams. . . . Some interested bowler left a notice at our office yesterday morning concerning a Friday night doubles league. The notice had no signature, so would the sender please send us more information. . . . Those Yankees better not make World Series plans too rapidly after the trouncing they took from the Tigers. . . . They say that if New York wins the AL that no one but New York residents may attend the World Series games. . . . Don't forget the fight between the rattle and the blacksnake to be staged at Wilder Field Sunday. Admission to the arena will be free, so come around and witness the most deadly battle of all time. . . . Only 407 people were on hand to witness the Braves nose out Brooklyn in Boston Monday. They have more than that at Wilder Field. And why can't Warren have a stadium. We certainly have as much interest as Boston fans. . . . Coach Lowell Drake, of Erie Academy, believes that he has found another Sid Luckman. A young fellow who answers to the tab of Morgan seems to have all the qualities of a natural and Drake thinks he has something. . . . In order for Pittsburgh to get into the NL pennant race, St. Louis has to lose all their remaining games while the steel city boys have to win all theirs. Pretty big order, huh? . . . We tuned in on the Washington Redskins-Pittsburgh Steelers-Chicago Cardinals (whew) football game the other evening. It was some battle, the Redskins collecting the needed points mid-way in the third quarter with a 15 yard field goal. . . . Warren Dragons Play Host To Titusville Next Saturday

Saturday afternoon the Warren High Dragon will play host to Art Brady's Titusville Rockets for the Dragon's fifth game of the season. The locals will be out to get their fourth win of the year against a team who was defeated 31-0 by Sharpshville.

Coach Leidig has announced no definite starting lineup but the regular eleven is expected to start the game. Bob Scallise and Chuck Adams will be at the end positions where they are doing a fine job, both on the offensive and defensive. Big Larry Zobrest and Paul Dickerson will lineup at the tackle positions, and Jay White and Bob Gerard will take the guard spots. Mac Siranni, backbone of the squad, will be at his regular post as center.

In the backfield, George Lucia will be in there doing the headwork, with Red Lee and Joe Allen at halfbacks. Dave Marti will again be at the tailback spot.

Most likely substitutes are Bob Wilder, who goes in the backfield; Harold Cawley, lineman; Louie Bonace, short, fast quarterback; Jack Cooney, who has been doing some excellent pass receiving; Chuck Brown, also receiving passes at a good clip; Jim Scallise, another back; and Allen Peterson, and Nick Geracimos, lineman.

The Dragons will probably concentrate a good deal on passing Saturday, depending on the strength of the Rocket defense. Last year the Dragons were trimmed, 12-7, at Titusville. If the Dragons have to resort to running, they have Lee, Lucia, Marti, and Allen all of whom are fast and powerful.

Gametime will be at 2:30 Saturday. Harry Summers' Dragon band will be on hand to add some color to the game. Also, there will be a pop stand at the west end of the field for those who get overexcited.

"Hold that Tiger! Hold that Tiger! Don't let that Tiger go!" That was the American League's theme song today but it was beginning to look as though something more desperate than holding was in order if Detroit's Bengals were to be kept out of the 1944 World Series.

Steve O'Neill's ferocious cats had clawed the opposition at a 13 out of 17 pace since Sept. 1 to scramble past both St. Louis and New York.

With only 12 games to go and a game and a half lead on the Browns, the Tigers dominated the picture today. Two straight over the Yankees had practically eliminated the defending champs, dropping them four games back and Boston had taken care of itself by losing two in a row to Cleveland to fall six full games behind.

Over the harvest month stretch, O'Neill's batting order, paced by Dick Waford, Rudy York and Roger Cramer, had slugged out a .302 average while the pitching corps had tamed the enemy with an anaemic .242 figure.

Twelve Detroit hits off rookies Mel Queen and Floyd Bevens helped Dizzy Trout to his 25th victory yesterday with an 8-2 edge over New York.

Jack Kramer kept the Browns up there, bouncing back from Tuesday's discouraging setback to trim Washington, 5-2. Chet Laabs, who replaced Al Zarilla in left field, led the 11-hit attack on Mickey Haefner and Al Carrasquel.

Reliever Jim Bagby stopped Boston in a wild-hitting contest won by Cleveland with two in the 13th, 11-10. Chicago broke loose with six runs in the seventh to give Orval Grove a 6-1 verdict over the Philadelphia Athletics. Bucky Walters grabbed his 22nd win by beating the Phils in the nightcap, 6-4, after Charley Schanz had stopped the Reds in the opener, 3-2. Pittsburgh downed Brooklyn 2-1 to keep the idle Cardinals from mathematically clinching the flag. Other games were rained out.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Any pro football league that can get control of the Yankee Stadium and the Los Angeles coliseum will have the upper hand in the future postwar competition that is likely to take place. . . . So far three leagues are projected—the All-American conference, the United States League and the Trans-America League—besides the established National League. . . . They're all planning to invade New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and Los Angeles, which also figures in the National's post-war plans beside having three or four clubs in existing city circuits. . . . In the key cities only those two fields would fill the major league bill. The All-American Conference, through Mrs. Lou Gehrig, figures to have an "in" at Yankee Stadium, but so does the Trans-America loop, which awarded a New York franchise to J. Basil Maguire, whose wife is one of the Ruppert heiresses. The Los Angeles coliseum is city-owned but is controlled by the colleges that play their big games there and so far they've turned a very chilly shoulder toward all pro propositions.

Success Story
Herman Levin, boss of the box office dept. for Mike Jacobs, had just finished reading "How to Win Friends and Influence People" when the author, Dale Carnegie, walked in to buy seven $10 tickets to Friday's Joe Baksi-Mauriello fight. . . . A few minutes later Carnegie walked out with seven top-price $12 tickets.

Shorts and Shells
Has anybody noticed that one reason why Baltimore won the International League pennant was that the park, not the club, caught fire? . . . Two of the games postponed when the Baltimore ball park burned couldn't be played off and thus the Orioles, having played fewer games, finished 607 ahead of Newark. . . . Look for Villanova to become a football power in Pennsylvania about Nov. 1. It is the only college in the state where marine trainees will be retained and stands a good chance of picking up good material from Penn State, Bucknell and Muhlenberg. . . . Similar transfers are scheduled to about a dozen other colleges. . . .

Chapter 16
SUSAN and Janie were walking home after a tennis game. Janie had seemed preoccupied, and Susan said, "Why don't you tell me about it, Janie? Is it Pete or Tim or Harold?"

"I don't know what makes you think there's anything wrong!" Janie retorted. "There's nothing the matter with me at all." She strode along beside Susan kicking stones with the toe of her tennis shoe, looking like a pouting towheaded child. And then she burst out in sudden violence. "It's just this jucky thing."

Susan's smile died at the note of loyal indignation in Janie's voice. "Oh, it's about me. My speech at the meeting the other night?"

"That, of course. But it's the other that gets me down."

"What other?"

"Oh your trip to Detroit—how you got home at that time in the morning, and your being seen in the Scarbrough's car. Even Dad says you ought to be more careful. That's why I didn't want you to come in this morning. It's none of your business and—"

Susan chuckled a little forlornly. "Your folks are trying to protect me from the town and the town is trying to protect me from the Scarbroughs and I'm trying to get out from behind all these wings and get a little idea of what he's about. Fun in a small town."

"I think I'll go to Detroit and get a job," Janie said suddenly. "I like to live at home but sometimes it seems me I can see myself marry Tim or Pete and getting plump and settled and gossipy—Oh, Susan, I'll be worse than Mrs. Lockhart!"

"But more goodnatured," Susan consoled.

"And then I say to myself: It's just a matter of self control. I'll read good books and broaden my horizon and stop being curious. Susan—you aren't seeing Erich Scarbrough, are you?"

SUSAN went into a merry peal of laughter. "You're priceless, Janie."

"Somehow I feel as if you are," Janie worried. "After you met him, you sort of glowed. And then when you found out who he was you were so nervous and irritable. And now—"

"And now I glow again!" Susan smiled.

"Yes you do. And you've changed. Susan. Everybody's noticed it. You're kind of—well, all by yourself I don't hardly feel like I know you any more. I—"

Sobs broke into the words. Janie went on walking and kicking stones and crying forlornly.

Susan put her arm around her, her own eyes damp.

"Janie, we've always been friends. We always will, I hope. We've gone through everything together. And yet—this is something I can't talk about yet. I have to work it out alone first. But you'll be the first to know when I can talk about it."

Janie cried harder. "Susan, don't fall in love with a Scarbrough. It'll ruin your life. Everybody says it'll ruin your life. They're clever. They're charming. They'll use you and then when they're not any more use to them they'll throw you aside!"

"So that's what the town believes." A coldness went over Susan. With an effort she threw it off, laughed and tightened her arm around Janie.

"Look, Janie, can you conceive that the town might be altogether wrong about the Scarbroughs?"

"Oh, Susan, how can you say that when we know—"

"We don't know anything. We've just been conjecturing things for years till they seem like they must have happened. Can't you see that?" She stopped with a sign at Janie's blank face. "No, you can't," she admitted wryly. "Any more than the town will be able to see it's wrong unless it has some concrete tangible proof."

THE sun had come out bright and warm by the time Susan got to her office but she was scarcely aware of it. She had bathed, dressed, eaten in brooding absorption. The task before Janie, Erich and herself seemed impossible. After twenty years there was small chance of finding concrete proof that the factory fire was accidental. The town would never relent. Janie would lose the factory, and her hope of clearing her father's name in the town.

When she opened the door into her office, Janie herself was just coming out of Thorny's office. In crisp rose linen and a wide leg-horn hat she looked radiant, without a care in the world.

"Good morning, darling," she greeted Susan, "how's everything?" Her slender hand pressed Susan's.

"Wonderful," Susan found herself saying.

"I'm on my way to the nursery," Janie confided. "I'm going to put in my rose garden again. Next summer we'll have tea in it. Can't you smell it?"

"I almost can when you say it that way," Susan laughed. Everything seemed to be all right again.

"That's exactly what it is!" he followed. "She's reopening this blamed factory with every damn penny she has in the world. And when the town kicks her out, she'll be in the cold—and I mean cold!"

Susan glanced at the document he shoved toward her. "But she shouldn't borrow on her life insurance," she protested. "That should be the last resort."

Thorny's fist struck the table. "That's exactly what it is!" he bellowed. "She's reopening this blamed factory with every damn penny she has in the world. And when the town kicks her out, she'll be in the cold—and I mean cold!"

Tin Can Salvage Dips to New Low

Harrisburg, Sept. 21—(AP)—Salvage of tin cans for the war effort dipped to a new low in Pennsylvania during August when shipments to detinning plants amounted to only 395 tons, the salvage committee of the State Defense Council reported today. In June shipments totaled 1,514 tons.

"Victory gardens accounted for a share of the month's decrease, but victories in France and the Pacific accounted for the most of it, Warren R. Roberts, committee chairman, said.

Declaring that tin is the most critically needed of all metals, the chairman called upon housewives to make sure that every tin can goes to war.

U. S. War Casualties Now Exceed 400,000

Washington, Sept. 21—(AP)—War casualties of the United States armed forces now exceed 400,000.

Secretary of War Stimson said today that army casualties reported through August 29 were 337,743. The latest navy casualty list totals 63,017.

The new army figure was an increase of 10,127 over that announced a week ago, but only about half the rate of increase in recent weeks. The drop apparently reflected a comparative lull in fighting between the breakthrough from the Normandy and Brittany areas, and the resumption of heavy fighting as Allied forces neared the German border.

C. Bagration's columns captured an additional 100 settlements from a fanatically resisting foe, and again hurled back tank and infantry attacks aimed at his communications base of Jelgava.

Between Bagration's and Govorov's forces the two armies of Gen. Andrei Yeremenko and Gen. Ivan Maslennikov surged forward in an attempt to slice the German front in half in the vicinity of the common border of Estonia and Latvia.

The Red army was officially silent on the battle for Warsaw and the drive from Transylvania toward the plains of Hungary.

The Russian war bulletin said the Red army air force made new raids on Budapest and the Hungarian-held Transylvanian town of Satu-Mare, both with good results.

FARM NEWS

Harrisburg, Sept. 21—(AP)—A 1944 crop of almost 48,000,000 pounds of cigar leaf tobacco in 10 Pennsylvania counties was predicted today by the federal-state crop reporting service despite a summer drought.

The drought, however, cut into the harvest of apples, and vegetables.

The service said state growers planted about 33,600 acres of tobacco, or about 1,900 more than in 1943 when a "better than average" crop of 40 million pounds was harvested.

By July 1 a bumper crop of nearly 49 million pounds was in sight, the state department of agriculture reported when yield per acre was estimated at 1,451 pounds.

However, dry weather in July and August retarded the growth of the leaf as it did corn and vegetables, the department said, and by August 1 the prospective yield had dropped to 45,420,000 pounds or 1,351 pounds per acre.

The two month dry spell was finally broken by showers around Sept. 1 and farmers reported "a substantial recovery" for tobacco. Official reports show estimated yield per acre snapped back to 1,421 pounds and a 47,736,000-pound harvest is predicted.

As a result of drought conditions, production of cabbage, carrots, celery, cucumbers and spinach will be considerably under last year's short crops, the agriculture department reported.

The crop reporting service made these comparisons between the state's estimated yields this year and last year's crop reports:

Cabbage—production of domestic types is estimated at 20,400 tons, or about 7,000 tons less than last year; Danish cabbage is expected to total 13,600 tons as compared with 16,100 tons harvested in 1943; approximately 200 acres were abandoned by growers due to dry weather.

Carrots—output is estimated at 630,000 bushels, or 70,000 less than last year.

Celery—half-crates last year totaled 260,000, while this year's estimate is 165,000.

Spinach—early fall variety expected to total 550,000 bushels, nearly 140,000 under the 1943 harvest.

Cucumbers—estimated 120,000 bushels this year compared with 144,000 a year ago.

Although dry weather reduced the Pennsylvania commercial apple crop by an estimated 1,300,000 bushels during August, the key-stone states in the country.

The crop reporting service estimated the state's output will total 9,100,000 bushels, a 79 per cent increase over 1943's short crop of 5,070,000 bushels.

Forecasts reported for other large apple producing states were: Washington, 29,000,000 bushels; New York, 17,000,000; and Virginia 13,500,000.

The agriculture department reported the Pennsylvania apple crop on Sept. 1 as 65 per cent normal, and a little better than the average for the nine-year period between 1934 and 1942.

SUICIDE SHOOTING

The first machine guns mounted on airplanes were not synchronized, with the result that seven of every 100 bullets fired struck the propeller blades. Steel bands were used in the blades to prevent them from shattering.

Outstanding Guest Speakers To Address Fall Institute To Be Held Here On Friday

The fall institute of Warren, Pa., will be held at the high school this evening and Friday and the county school directors' convention at the court house tomorrow will bring to Warren some distinguished guest speakers and educational leaders.

One of these will be Dr. Alvin C. Goddard, international relations authority, who has had an unusual background and one that has prepared him well for his position as a gifted speaker, experienced analyst and able commentator. He was executive secretary of the Methodist World Peace Commission for four years; advisory member of the international relations committee in President Hoover's state department; YWCA camp secretary and interim chaplain in World War I; pastor in a number of leading churches. He is frequently in Washington to confer with government officials and foreign diplomats and has a specific message on the vital part the teaching profession will always play in our history.

Another speaker will be the Hon. Orlo M. Brees, member of the New York state legislature and author of "Spudville Philosophy and Philosophy," which reviewers have termed "as American as buckwheat cakes and sausage." His background covers wide occupational contacts—coal miner, textile worker, salesman, teacher, printer, author, editor, minister and legislator. He entered the New York state assembly from Broome county in 1940 and has been continued by reelection in that office. Donald V. Hock is a successful Pennsylvania attorney and counselor at law and is constantly in demand for addresses to service clubs, women's organizations, educational groups, conventions and other gatherings. Graduate of Muhlenberg College and University of Pennsylvania Law School, he won high honors for oratory at both places and later was a successful instructor in public speaking. He was president of the Exchange Club of Pennsylvania in 1941-42, 1942-43.

Glenn Drake, who speaks at the Friday afternoon session of the institute, is no stranger to Warren. He has appeared here on the concert and recital stage on a number of occasions and has many friends in the community. This is his second institute address here, proof that his messages are really helpful to the teaching profession. Mr. Drake is founder and head of the Drake School for Professionals in Chicago and has had a hand in preparing many stage, screen and radio personalities for their careers.

On the Friday morning program at the high school appears Dr. Gerald A. Yeakam, professor of education and director of courses in education at the University of Pittsburgh. Another institute figure will be Frank Gullo, assistant

Women of Warren! Here are five questions and answers that you have been asking our Recruiters. Remember, we welcome your questions and your having a chat with us at our office anytime between 2 and 9 p. m. at the YWCA. A chat with us does not obligate you in the least. However, if you realize that NOW is when your country is in need of you, we will fill out your application and enlist you in the greatest Women's Army Corps in the world.

Question No. 1—Can I pick my job and choose which station I want to serve at?

Yes. You may still choose your job and station assignment until Nov. 1, in your own third service command. This includes Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia. But after Nov. 1 you will not be able to choose your job and station.

Question No. 2—Can I be a WAC in the Medical Department though I have not had any experience with medical work?

This depends entirely on you. If you are definitely interested in medical work and you display sincerely that you will assume your responsibility in aiding some soldier return to normal life, you definitely can be a Wac in the Medical Department, and we shall be proud to have you.

Question No. 3—Am I guaranteed specialized training if I enlist in the medical department?

Yes, we definitely guarantee specialized training in the Medical Department, such as dental technician, pharmacist's aide, and X-Ray technician.

Question No. 4—What if I don't have a birth certificate to prove my age?

A baptismal certificate will be sufficient or an affidavit signed by a Notary Public.

Question No. 5—How long will I serve in the Army?

Same as your fellow soldier. The duration plus 6 months, and if you desire you may volunteer for the Army of occupation.

professor of music at Pennsylvania State College.

Rounding out the directors' program on Friday will be two leaders from the educational field. Dr. Leversia L. Boyer, advisor of special education in the Pennsylvania department of public instruction, and P. O. Van Ness, who is executive secretary of the Pennsylvania State School Directors' Association.

"I PRIDE MYSELF on my own corn muffins but truly this quick way (Flakorn) is 100 per cent perfect" writes a lady from New England. And most housewives have the same experience.

More than a million good cooks now make their pies with Flako.

Mrs. Robison Is Enrolled in Cancer Army

Appointment of Mrs. Elizabeth C. Robison, of State College, as state commander of the Pennsylvania Division of the Field Army of the American Cancer Society was announced on Wednesday in a joint statement by Dr. Zoe A. Johnson, chairman of the state executive committee of the Field Army and Mrs. Gustav Ketterer, of Philadelphia, its commander.

Mrs. Robison is opening a state headquarters office for the Field Army at 308 State Theatre building, Harrisburg, from which the state activities will be conducted. The outstanding work of cancer education conducted by Mrs. Ketterer will be continued by Mrs. Robison under the name of the Field Army of the American Cancer Society which was formerly known as The Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer.

Elizabeth C. Robison

In assuming her duties as state commander, Mrs. Robison declared: "I am firmly convinced that the future holds great promise and with the combined assistance of the medical profession and the men and women of Pennsylvania we will be able to save many lives and materially lessen suffering by bringing about early detection of the disease. It is a source of genuine pleasure to advance a program in Pennsylvania in which so much has already been done and in which so much more can be accomplished."

Mrs. Robison brings with her a wealth of experience as commander of the Field Army for Center county. During her commandship of the Center county unit she was responsible for organizing and developing the most efficient cancer dressing unit in Pennsylvania which has won national recognition.

SUGAR RUN NATIVE DEAD IN CAPITAL

Washington, Sept. 21.—(P)—George O. Barnes, 66, assistant to the treasurer of the United States, died after an illness of three weeks. A native of Sugar Run, Pa., he taught school in Pennsylvania before coming to Washington in 1902 as an employee of the treasury department.

His widow, three sons and two daughters survive.

ATHLETES FOOT GERM HOW TO KILL IT

The germ imbeds deeply. Can't be killed unless reached. Many liniments and ointments do not penetrate sufficiently. Ask any druggist for Teal solution. Made with 90% alcohol, it PENETRATES. Reaches more germs. APPLY FULL STRENGTH for 10 to 15 seconds or until feet feel warm. Wash off with soap and water. Locally at Mullen Drug Co.
